

As was confirmed at the recent BLC meeting all bookmakers are again requested to purchase their betting badges online in advance.

There will not be a Badge Box in operation during the Investec Derby Festival and therefore bookmakers will be unable to purchase betting badges on the day.

To buy betting badges please click on the link below which will take you directly to the correct webpage.

<https://epsomtickets.thejockeyclub.co.uk/Online>

In the bar beneath the black panel at the top of the page click on 'On Course Bookmakers Day Badges'.

To see the charges click on 'Fees Breakdown' & to buy betting badges click on 'IDF Bookmaker Day Badges'

Enter the usual JCRAFT access code and click on 'Go'.

Now select the enclosure you want a betting badge (or badges) by clicking on 'Buy'.

Now select the number of badges you want and select the days you want them for. Please note the IDF AMF will automatically be included. Click on 'Continue'.

The next page shows your Bundle Results – the cost in the Shopping Basket at the top includes daily AGT fees. Click on 'Continue'.

This page shows what you have selected to buy in detail – Click on Order Confirmation. You will receive an email confirmation after payment (no badge/s). The BRM will have a full list of bookmakers who have bought betting badges. Click on continue and select either your existing account or set up a new account if you don't already have one.

Should you need any help completing the online purchase please call the JCR Online Helpdesk 0115 896 1533. There is no betting badge telephone purchase option.

Please note that the email confirmation does not provide access to the racecourse (the DBB charge has been reduced by one multiple accordingly). You will need to separately buy public admission badges for yourself and each member of staff (or utilise Annual Members Badges if you have them) via the Epsom Downs website.

Should you decide not to stand, prior to Pitching In, a full refund back to your card will be made.
